He Stabbed Himself.

Now Lying in St. Vincent's Hospital Sobbing Because Death Is Slow.

Charles Botter, twenty-three years old a native of Holland, who has been in this country about one year, is under guard at St. Vincent's Hospital, having attempted suicide last night in his room at 217 Sullivan street by stabbing himself in the left breast just above the heart.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Julius Durenmatit, who runs the furnished-room house at the above number, heard groans in Botter's room. Thinking something unusual had happened. he ran to the Mercer street station and potified the police.

When the officers entered the room they found Botter lying on his back on the bed. On his right lay the bloody knife, with which he had committed the deed, and on his left was the photograph of a beautiful young girl and a lock of light-brown

There was nothing else in the room to explain the attempted suicide. When taken to st. Vincent's Hospital it was said he would die. Early yesterday evening Botter engaged a room in Durenmatil's lodging-house. 'Inat he was determined to take his life is evident from the fact that he hired the room for one

It was about 11.30 o'clock when the lodginghouse keeper heard grouns in Botter's room. He listened and heard the occupant calling teebly "Relene! Helene!"

The door was locked, but the proprietor forced it open and entered the room. He saw Botter lying in the bed besmeared with blood. Without waiting to make any further investigation he ran around to the Mercer street station and came back with Detectives Cooney and Sullivan.

It was found that Botter had stabbed himself twice in the breast, in the region of the heart, with a small-pointed knife which had been ground to a razor edge.

He was lying on his side. On the pillow was a cabinet photograph of a young woman about twenty-three years of age. Pluned to the bottom of the picture was a heavy lock of

It was evident that Botter was in love with the original of the photograph, and that he had attempted to kill himself on her account. He placed the knife alongside of him and took what he thought would be a last look at the face of his beloved.

The detectives took the photograph, which was bloodstained, away from him. He struggled to regain possession of it. "I am sick and tired of life and I want to die." he said in answer to a question as to Failure of the Society's Raid on Dink Davis's Gambling Den.

There will be called next Tuesday, in Part III. of the Court of General Sessions, the case of Marie Andrea, charged with maintaining a disorderly house at 42 West Fourth street.

The woman's arrest followed a visit to her resort by Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst and the agents of his society, Detectives Langdon, Erving, Gardner and Howes. The testimony in the case is expected to be of a more revolting character than that in which the visit to Hattie Adams's house in West

Twenty-seventh street was described. Rev. Dr. Parkhurst was seen to-day at his home, 133 East Thirty-fifth street, by an EVENING WORLD reporter. The preacher was manipulating the keys of a typewriter, and paused between the ticks to answer these

" Did you visit in person the house kept by Mme. Andrea ?" " I did."

" About a month ago." "Then it was prior to your visit to Mrs. Adams's ?"

" What was the date. Doctor?"

" It was about the same time." " Are you willing to describe what transpired in the West Fourth street house in your presence?" Dr. Parknurst hesitated, looked thought-ground that you do not care to expose your evidence?"

"Yes, that's it, that's it," said the Doctor evidence?"

"Yes, that's it, that's it," said the Doctor eagerly.

To-day had been set in the Sixth District Court for the opening of the suit of ejectment brought by Mrs. M. E. Pigott, Owner of the premines at 33 Kast Twenty-seventh street, against Mrs. Hattle Adams. Counsel for both sides met in the court this forenoon and by mutual agreement had the case set down for trial next Wednesday.

Rev. Dr. Parkhurst said, when asked if he would testify again in the Adams case, that he most certainly would if he was subpenned to attend. "I have not yet received such a subpens, but I will undoubtedly get one."

A raid was made last night, under the direction of Dr. Parkhurst, by a dozen officers of the Essex Market Court squad and several agents of the Doctor's Society, on the gambling house kept by "Dink" Davis at 57 West Twenty-eighth street.

Justice Kilbreth issued the warrant, which was sealed and not opened until 10.30 last night by Supt. Lewis, of the Prevention of Crime Society.

From a visit which Dr. Parkhurst made to Bridgeport yesterday the impression was gained to-day that he was interesting himself in the inorals of that city and had visited disreputable houses there.

Ed Corrigan and His Entries for the Garfield Park Derby.

A centleman came to THE EVENING WORLD'S representative at Guttenburg several days ago and volunteered the information that the uniformed messenger boys who make bets for sale plan. He had no positive evidence to support his statement, however. He kept his Sr. Paul, Minn., April 15.—The Sisseto Indian Reservation surplus lands, prepared for opening to settlement at noon to-day, are located in the northeastern corner of South Dakota, covering the most of Robert County, lapping over the edge of Marshall and Dar counties, crossing the Panhandle of Grant and the sharp point of the triangular-shaped reservation extending down to the centre of Coddington, a few miles from Watertown, where fling may be made and where much of the crowd of eager seckera after lands have been awaiting this day.

The northern base of the triangular shaped sover into Sargent and Richland counties in North Dakota, and for that reason filings may be made at Fargo.

The reservation is the source of the Red River of the North, which flows ultimately into Hudson's Bay; of the Minnesota River which crosses this State and empties into the Missouri.

The old reports regarding the reopening of the Elizabeth track are again floating about. This time the rumor says that the course will reopen on next Wednesday and continuo was soon arranged with the aid of a Commission, and te-day's scramble for lands is the result.

The Indians have selected many of the best lands on the reservation, but it is estimated that enough for about four thousand claims of one hundred and sixty acres each still remained up to noon to-day. By to-night there will be very little if any left. There now remain some seven hundred thousand acres, the reservation being 45 miles across the northern side and 70 miles on the southeastern and southwestern sides of the triangle, respectively.

A little further south, along the same boundary, is Wilmot, S. Dak. on the Milwankee, and within a few miles of the line, to which that road extends.

A crowd of several hundred will make the race for the reservation on a Milwankee train,

The old Guttenburger, Sir Lancelot, is the best and fastest sprinter at the East Side Just now. He has won his last two races at Ive rurlongs with ridiculous ease, carrying 130 and 123 pounds. The Garfield Park management are evidently in for a red hot time with the Chicago authorities. Mayor Washburn, the west side Aldermen and the West Park Commissioners

The racing at Guttenburg yesterday was interesting throughout, though some heavily backed choices went down during the day, blackburn and Firefy, both heavily backed at odds on, were detected. In the case of the last-named, he was lame and sore in his proliminary, which accounts for his poor showing. Blackburn's defeat was not a diagrace, and he owes it to the fact that the pace was so hot in the first part of the journey. This challed Benedictine, a rater, to coice on and win while the others were thring. Early bewn and Vocalite were the only winning favorites.
